

ANAT-211: Anthropology

A comprehensive examination of the human experience. Major topics include the relationship between biology and culture; cultural diversity; and the cultural evolution of communication, kinship, religion, art, political organization, and foodways.

Credits: 2

Program: Anatomy