

ARHI-278: Trends Ideas African American Art

This course seeks to introduce students to problems in art historiography and art criticism and to explore the issues of identity and culture through examination of the Harlem Renaissance and contemporary developments in African American Art.

Credits: 3

Program: Art History-Master Of Arts