

ARHI-282: Far Eastern Art

The course examines the dynamic variety of form and imagery originating from a wide range of locations and ideologies. It identifies distinct stylistic qualities that define the visual idiom of each unique society, while searching for the artistic commonalities between them.

Credits: 3

Program: Art History-Master Of Arts