

ARHI-291: Contemporary African Art

The course will probe the destructive politics behind much of contemporary African Art, and it will include installation art, textile art and hangings. We will discuss whether contemporary African artists work in the Western art world or the African world or both, and which dominates each artist.

Credits: 3

Program: Art History-Master Of Arts