

ARHI-298: The Expressionist Image

An introduction to the language of visual expression, using studio projects to explore the fundamental principles of visual art. Students acquire a working knowledge of visual syntax applicable to the study of art history and popular culture, as well as art.

Credits: 3

Program: Art History-Master Of Arts