

ARTG-245: Social Design Workshop Studio

Studio investigation on the interior environment via unique or prototypical projects, of varying scales and typologies, and in response to considerations of social context, site, and program. Emphasizing a holistic, threedimensional approach to problem-solving, including spatial manipulations and integrated investigations of materials, structures, light, and color.

Credits: 3

Program: Art-Graduate MFA