

ARTG-405: Studio Elective: Fashion Photography

In this course, students will explore the allure and implementation of fashion photography as it relates to cultural genres and influences. Emphasis will be placed on specific setups and lighting techniques for a desired result as well as creating a studio (or location) production environment to shoot their own work and best practices for creating works that have an editorial appeal.

Credits: 3

Program: Art-Graduate MFA