

CLDE-243: Clinical Endodontics (D2)

This course is a three-semester course given over the Summer, Fall, and Spring semesters, with the final grade being calculated and credit submitted in the Spring. department expects that each student completing the didactic and clinical training in Endodontics will meet the established goals as described in the clinical syllabus.

Credits: 0

Program: Clinical Dentistry