

CLDE-325: General Dentistry I

Information presented in this course is designed to introduce the second year Dental Student to clinic operations and policies at the College of Dentistry. Faculty members will present lectures uniquely designed to transition students from the preclinical setting to the clinic environment. Additionally, selected staff and invited guests will present information relevant to clinical success.

Credits: 1

Program: Clinical Dentistry