

CLPS-302: Research in Clinical Administrative Pharmacy Sciences

The course deals with an introduction to techniques and methodologies in clinical pharmacy research. Emphasis on literature retrieval, design/conduct of experiments on a specific problem, drug therapy clinical studies or pharmacy administration topics, and analysis and interpretation of data for a written report.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 and permission of the instructor.

Program: Clinical & Pharmacy Science