

DENT-225: Evidence Based Decision Making II

This course will continue where the evidence-based decision making I course left off. The course will instruct the student in how to analyze peer reviewed publications using the Literature Analysis Form (LAF) and also provide more instruction to students about how to read and understand systematic reviews.

Credits: 1

Program: Dentistry