

DHYG-342: Pain Control and Therapeutics

This course is designed to enable first year dental hygiene students to perform the procedures presented in the Pain Control course and enhance clinical experiences from Clinical Dental Hygiene II. Students will utilize patient partner clinic experiences and laboratory simulation in the delivery of local anesthesia and nitrous oxide sedation.

Credits: 2

Program: Dental Hygiene