

ELPS-284: Public Administration

This course provides an overview of the study and practice of public administration. It gives students an overview of the basic concepts and issues in the field, including theories of organization, public policy, public management, decision making, public law, program implementation and evaluation, and ethics, and notes how the field has developed over time. Students develop skills in decision making, and in appreciating the multiple perspectives, values, and ethical challenges of public service.

Credits: 3

Program: Educ. Leadership & Policy