

ELPS-604: History of Higher Education

The history of higher education begins in the ancient world. ... This is a broad survey course intended to acquaint learners with the significant events and themes of both mainstream higher education and those institutions often thought to be on the fringes of American higher education.

Credits: 3

Program: Educ. Leadership & Policy