

ELPS-613: Fundraising in Higher Education

This course provides a historical, philosophical, and organizational overview of the practices of philanthropy as it relates to college and universities. Examines the implications for research and practice in higher education that are associated with its cultivation of philanthropy, institutional advancement and fundraising activities.

Credits: 3

Program: Educ. Leadership & Policy