

GFIN-508: Seminar in Corporate Finance

This course exposes students to a wide range of topics in the finance literature. All Finance Ph.D. students are required to attend, but only those in their second year take it for credit. The course allows students to develop ideas for their dissertations. Students will present papers related to their own interests as well as critical evaluation of the extant literature.

Credits: 3

Program: Finance (GR)