

HUDE-403: Select Topics in Program Evaluation

The purpose of this course is to present students with an overview of basic approaches used to understand and assess public programs. The course will look at public program evaluation from a conceptual and analytical point of view and review the numerous ways of understanding and assessing program effectiveness.

Credits: 3

Program: Human Development & Psycho-Edu