

INTG-209: Materials & Interior Specifications

Coursework includes an intensive examination of materials and finishes used in residential and commercial interiors. Course activities include estimating, fabrication, and installation, identifying materials, composition, use, appropriateness, manufacturers, and sources.

Credits: 3

Program: Portfolio Development & Review