

INTG-214: Interior Design Professional Practice

The course develops foundational business and professional practices of interior design. The course explores compensation and fees, contracts, business forms, budget management, designer/client and trade relationships, and legal considerations to operate an interior design business effectively.

Credits: 3

Program: Portfolio Development & Review