

MATH-259: Differential Geometry I

This course will introduce the theory of the geometry of curves and surfaces in threedimensional space using calculus techniques, exhibiting the interplay between local and global quantities.

Credits: 3

Program: Mathematics