

MICR-300: Biology of Pathogens I

Review of factors and mechanisms utilized by pathogenic bacteria, fungi and protozoan parasites as determinants of their pathogenicity. Roles of plasmids, exotoxins, extracellular enzymes and outer wall components that mediate virulence and microbial adherence.

Credits: 5

Program: Microbiology