

MUTL-312: Graduate University Choir II

A continuation of MUTL-311. This is a one-hour credit course intended to develop the skill, knowledge, and attitudes to perform the range of musical styles and genre written for the concert choir ensemble. The choir class is intended to help develop each singer's vocal ability in a positive environment as well as to present quality performances with a high level of musicianship.

Credits: 1

Program: University Choir