NUCP-603: Primary Nurse Practitioner Role Seminar & Practicum

A primary care nurse practitioner will assess a patient's health, administer preventive care, and help to treat and manage general conditions. They will refer patients to a specialist if a more serious condition is discovered.

Credits: 5

Program: Post Master's Certificate Program