

NURC-511: Advanced Pathophysiology

Describes disordered physiology and clinical consequences of common disease processes. Analyses of the biophysical rationale are used during seminar, problem-solving exercises and case studies to recognize the pathophysiologic bases of clinical findings.

Credits: 3

Program: Graduate Nursing Core Courses