

OCCG-531: Theories of Occupational Performance & Assessment in Physical Dysfunctions

This course focuses on the features of major diseases, injuries, and disorders on adult occupational performance. Physical dysfunction theories, models of practice, frames of reference that provide the foundation of occupational therapy.

Credits: 3

Program: Occupational Therapy (Grad)