

OCCG-543: Clinical Decision Making In OT III

A continuation of OCCG-539. This course has a number of learning activities in which the student retrieves, interprets through critical appraisal, and applies the results of scientific studies to determine the best course of action for a patient, whether a diagnostic procedure, a therapeutic intervention, or no intervention.

Credits: 1

Program: Occupational Therapy (Grad)