

OCCG-760: Musculoskeletal Anatomy

This course entails the study of the structures, relationships and functions of specific joints and associated ligaments, tendons and muscles. It provides a foundation for understanding of the etiologies and anatomic basis of musculoskeletal diseases.

Credits: 4

Program: Occupational Therapy (Grad)