

PGDP-604: General Dentistry Conference

The goal of this course is to provide the second-year resident an opportunity to explore a broad range of topics related to general dentistry. Advanced literature review is expected of the second-year resident to focus on clinical care as well as practice management, information technology, ethics, advanced treatment modalities and community service. Second year residents are also expected to lead group discussions with first year residents on general dentistry topics.

Credits: 0

Program: Postgraduate Dental Program