

PGDP-760: Orthodontic Literature Review

Orthodontic Literature Review: Fall and Spring Semesters, 5 credit hours. This course consists of presentations of classic and current literature in orthodontics, discussions and related case presentations to familiarize the students with past and current literature and prepare them for the American Board of Orthodontics (ABO) written specialty board examination.

Credits: 3

Program: Postgraduate Dental Program