

PHAS-54: Emergency Medicine Clerkship

This clerkship provides experience in caring for patients who present to the Emergency Department with a variety of acute and subacute problems. The emphasis is on learning to stabilize and correctly triage critically ill and injured patients, as well as common emergent conditions.

Credits: 2

Program: Physician Assistant