

PHTH-702: Clinical Process in PT Practice

This course introduces the clinical process of physical therapy practice. Emphasis is placed on fundamental skills and techniques utilized in patient care. Topics include professional behavior, communication, examination, assessment, mobility, and documentation. This course is presented through lecture, laboratory and clinical experiences.

Credits: 3

Program: Physical Therapy