

POLS-230: American Political Thought

An examination of the documents and writings of American political theorists and practitioners from colonial to contemporary times.

Credits: 3

Program: Political Science