

POLS-267: Political Leadership in Africa

A study of the role of political leadership in the development of African nations, with special reference to the influence of major personalities.

Credits: 3

Program: Political Science