

POLS-284: Third World Political Theory

Examination of the contribution of third world theorists and leaders to the development of political theory. Topics include dependency theory, nonalignment, and alternative political and economic models

Credits: 3

Program: Political Science