

PROS-205: Fixed Prosthodontics Lab II

This is part two of the course administered in the previous semester. It continues the delivery of basic principles of Fixed Prosthodontics to include preparation design and laboratory procedures in pouring impressions, die trimming, casting, etc. The student will gain the knowledge required to treatment plan patients requiring single crown and multiple fixed partial denture prostheses.

Credits: 3

Program: Prosthodontics