

RTVF-502: Film Editing

Designed to foster positive learning experiences while teaching the basic production and editing techniques of cinematography. The course is designed to involve students in the technological environment of both live and recorded film productions.

Credits: 3

Program: Radio Television and Film