

SWPH-605: Proseminar - Communities & Organizations

Examines communities and organizations as a level of intervention for solving social problems, with emphasis on analyses of existing theory, research, and models. Special attention paid to issues of concern to African Americans. Implications for other minorities and for women also examined.

Credits: 3

Program: Social Work Ph.D. Program