

SWPS-214: Social Welfare Policy & Services II

Builds on content in SWPS-213 by promoting understanding of and competence in application of policy frameworks for analysis, formulation, advocacy, use of policy research through assessing context, intent, process and the impact of organizational, executive, legislative, and judicial decisions to advanced social and economic justice. Examines use of diverse strategies to create planned change in organizations and larger social systems for direct, community, administration and policy practice.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

SWPS-213.

Program: Social Welfare Policy & Services