SWPS-313: Systems Analysis

(Advanced course) Examines in depth, human services organizations as systems, external connections with environment, organizational culture, behavior, climate, reward systems, infrastructure, and effectiveness. Assesses and applies organizational development strategies and techniques to bring about planned change.
Credits: 3
Program: Social Welfare Policy & Services