

SWPS-324: Program Development and Entrepreneurship

(Elective) Focuses on the process of conceptualizing, planning, budgeting, evaluating, and securing public and private resources to develop, fund, staff, and measure the effectiveness of programs to meet identified outcomes. Examines types and methods of developing different models of social work entrepreneurship.

Credits: 3

Program: Social Welfare Policy & Services