ARCH 160: Foundations in Design I

A studio course that introduces students to architectural representation. Orthographic projections, descriptive geometry, contours, paraline drawings, shade and shadows and model making are presented and applied.
Credits: 5
Prerequisites:
None.
Program: Architecture