

ARCH 266: Architecture Pre-Design

Course focuses primarily on needs of students who are approaching design problems requiring a sequential structuring for analysis, synthesis and evaluation. The course covers micro to macro-environmental programming and design procedures. Considerable emphasis on development and use of appropriate communication skills with case studies.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ARCH 199; Second year standing.

Program: Architecture