

Finance (MSF)

The Master of Science in Finance [MSF] Degree Program will equip students with the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed in business and advance in careers in Finance.

In this intensive specialized graduate program, students learn to analyze and solve complex finance and investment problems and practical issues in the areas of corporate finance, financial market and institutions, financial modeling, investment analysis, portfolio management or derivatives and risk management, financial engineering, and financial policy and strategy. This program is intended for graduate students interested in careers in corporate finance, asset management, and financial markets and institutions.

Program: Finance (GR)

Type: MSF

*Statistics Elective: Choose between PSYC-207 (3crs) or HUDE-400 (3crs)

Item #	Title	Credits
GFIN-501	Advanced Corporate Finance	3
GFIN-502	Financial Markets and Institutions	3
GFIN-505	Financial Marketing	3
GFIN-590	Corporate Financial Policy and Strategy	3
GFIN-507	Financial Statements Analysis	3
GFIN-503	Investment Analysis and Portfolio Management	3
GECN-500	Macroeconomics for Business	3
GFIN-506	Seminar in Financial Engineering	3
GFIN-508	Seminar in Corporate Finance	3
	Statistics Elective	3
	Total credits:	30