

LAW-638: ADR

This course will introduce the concept and practice of alternative dispute resolution. We will focus on the primary ADR processes - negotiation, mediation and arbitration - (among others) and examine these processes in the context of different areas of the law and the judicial system.

Credits: 3

Program: Law