

LAW-652: *CD: Environmental Justice

This course will explore environmental problems or issues addressed by the law. Students will understand environmental law (Domestic & International) and explore how environmental justice law supplements and enhances environmental law to ensure justice for disadvantaged peoples confronting disproportionate burdens of environmental harm is caused by human conduct. This course will explore the specifics of Federal and selected state constitutional rights and remedies, Federal Statutory Rights, and major proposals for additional rights and remedies.

Credits: 3

Program: Law