

LAW-821: DC Law Students in Court-Civ Litigation

This course is an overview of the structure and function of court systems in the United States. Emphasis will be placed on the relationships between state and federal courts within the context of judicial decision making.

Credits: 12

Program: Law