

CLDE-102: Clinical Observation II (D1)

This is the clinical rotation course occurring at the beginning of the Second year clinical rotation course receiving its final grade in the Spring of the D2 year. It continues the introduction of Clinical Dentistry throughout the academic year. Students will rotate through all dental disciplines and experience opportunities to chairside observe, assist, and complete assigned tasks associated with patient care.

Credits: 0

Program: Dentistry